Class Placement and or casting

Class placement or casting will be handled according to age and ability level. Students will be placed or cast so they contribute as well as benefit from the class they are assigned. Once cast in any production, dancers will commit to all and any rehearsals scheduled. No dancer will miss rehearsal for any reason. In order for performances to be successful, dancers and parents must realize that they are committing themselves to a group of other individuals who are working for the same goal which can only be achieved with full participation and cooperation.

Dancer and Parent Code of Conduct

International City School of Ballet promotes respect and discipline in a positive atmosphere. In order for International City School of Ballet to be successful, all parents, dancers and instructors must contribute to this positive atmosphere. Any concerns throughout the 2009-2010 year must be addressed to Georne Aucoin by appointment only. Any "rumors" or damaging comments made about other parents, dancers, instructors, or ICSB performances in general, that is not addressed with Ms. Aucoin directly will result in a dancer's immediate removal from the studio (with no refunds). This would include disrespectful behavior to parents, other students, or instructors which would be determined at the director's discretion.
